12 November Carol Sampson

Deborah Rose

Deborah will sing with her guitar and will provide an entertaining and engaging musical performance from the forties to modern day, responding to individual needs and creating an uplifting experience for all. Her beautiful voice will enchant you!

Glamba

Nick and Karen from Glamba bring the sounds of Africa and Brazil to the room, through their Samba and African drum workshops. Have fun and have a go with these amazing instruments and percussion also.

Heather Wastie

Heather will be singing songs, both familiar and new, and making music with percussion instruments. Anyone who has an instrument is welcome to bring it along. The main aim of the session is to have fun!

Kevin Leitch and Kel Elliot

Kevin and Kel are in a band and will be performing some of their music. Kelly plays double bass and sings and Kelvin plays acoustic guitar, ukulele and does backing vocals. You will be in for a treat!

Tristan Pate

Tristan is a guitarist and singer. His repertoire includes music from the 20s, 30s and 40s as well as traditional songs, cockney music, songs from musicals and wartime songs. He also likes to play 1950s rock and pop hits as well.

Carol Sampson

Carol will take you down 'Memory Lane' with songs from the 50's, 60's and 70's. Laden with her guitar and percussion instruments, she'll have you joining in before you know it!
